The Sigma Pi Creed

I Believe

in Sigma Pi, a Fellowship of kindred minds, united in Brotherhood to advance Truth and Justice, to promote Scholarship, to encourage Chivalry, to diffuse Culture, and to develop Character, in the Service of God and Man; and I will strive to make real the Fraternity's ideals in my own daily life.

The Emerald of Sigma Pi is the official publication of Sigma Pi Fraternity. The Emerald is published four times yearly: fall, winter, spring and summer. Unless specially identified as such, statements made or opinions expressed in this publication are those of the writer and do not necessarily represent the opinions or policies of Sigma Pi Fraternity or its members.

Sigma Pi is a member of the College Fraternity Editors Association.

The upcoming fall issue of The Emerald will include stories about Convocation award winners, founders’ award recipients and the Grand Council.

Grand Council Awards

The Grand Council Awards are new and will go to the chapter in their division which best exemplify the ideals of Sigma Pi Fraternity. There are three divisions: one for chapters with more than 20,000 student enrollment at their university or college, the second goes to chapters which school’s enrollment is between 10,000 and 20,000 and the last division is for chapters at universities or colleges with less than 10,000 students.

Small School Division (less than 10,000)
Medium School Division (10,000-20,000)
Large School Division (more than 20,000)

Large: California State University, Fullerton (Epsilon-Nu)
Medium: Auburn University (Alpha-Delta)
Small: Elon College (Epsilon-Theta)

Kennedy walks to the top
Undergraduate makes U.S. National Gymnastics Team

By Darrell Edquist
Emerald Editor

Everyday as the recess bell rang, the majority of the boys immediately dashed out of their classrooms and on the school's basketball courts, baseball diamonds and football fields. At Franklin Elementary School near Chicago, Tom Kennedy was an exception.

Kennedy was small and shy. Even though he played little league and was as athletic as his classmates, Kennedy didn't fantasize as the others did about becoming professional athletes. Instead, the pre-teenager was infatuated with learning how to walk — on his hands.

He practiced everywhere he went. Sometimes it was at the school gymnasium or athletic fields, sometimes up and down the stairs at home and other times around the swimming pool and on the diving board.

Kennedy wasn't your stereotypical child. His parents even began to wonder. They thought their son's hobby was strange and unnatural.

"It was most unusual," Kennedy's mother, Gladys, said. But rather than curb his activities, "we did the stronger I could walk farther and farther. Then in the sixth grade I could walk back and forth across the gym a couple of times."

As a member of the United States amateur team, Kennedy competed in two national meets this summer at Syracuse, N.Y. and the National Sports Festival in Indianapolis. He also trained at the United State Olympic Training Headquarters in Colorado this summer.

Olympic Team. He was ranked No. 16 in the country after the Syracuse meet, four notches higher than he started the summer.

Northern Illinois University gymnastic coach Chuck Ehrlich, who's coached 11 All-Americans in nine years at NIU, said Kennedy has a good shot at making the 1984 Olympic Team. Ehrlich said Kennedy is a better gymnast than former NIU All-American Breck Grigas, comparing each after their junior season. Grigas was later selected as the alternate for the 1980 Olympic team.

He would walk across the fields (on my hands) and as I got stronger I could walk farther and farther. Then in the sixth grade I could walk back and forth across the gym a couple of times."

"He (Kennedy) is still improving," Ehrlich said. "I know the others are, but his rate is higher."

Indeed, Kennedy's immediate success has baffled coaches who overlooked him in high school. He was an average high school gymnast and received no college scholarships. After his disappointing freshman year at NIU, Kennedy turned out to be a coaches dream — a walk-on sensation turn superstar. Not only did he make the varsity squad his sophomore year, but he qualified for the NCAA Individual Championships. He was the team leader and the squad's most valuable player.

This past season, Kennedy led the Huskies to the NCAA Team Championships (the countries top ten teams are invited) for the first time in NIU history. Again, he was the team's most valuable player.

"Kennedy was never that good in high school," the NIU coach said. "He averaged 7.2 in high school and there was probably a couple thousand (gymnasts) athletes with those marks. But now he is one of the top 20-25 (gymnasts) athletes in the United States.

"He is one of the select few right now if you think about it."

He is.

Kennedy's gymnastic background is contradictory to most All-American gymnasts. He wasn't coached in a plush gym or club when he was young. He doesn't represent or belong to any club. His only club experience lasted six months when he was in the seventh grade. His only coaching prior to NIU was by the Willow Brook High School football coach who doubled as gymnastics coach.

Kennedy wasn’t serious about gymnastics until his sophomore year at Willow Brook; an age when most of the country’s best teenage gymnasts were competing in National Junior meets.

Ehrlich, Kennedy, and his parents said his jump to gymnastic stardom can be attributed to him joining the fraternity in the middle of his sophomore year, spring 1981.

"Belonging to the fraternity has been a big factor to his (Kennedys) gymnastic success," his coach said.

"During his freshman and sophomore years he had a tough time adjusting (to college life). Part of his improvement is because of fraternity and part due to maturity."

"He’s a more disciplined person now" Ehrlich added. "He handles himself in a more disciplined matter now when he’s under adverse situations."

Kennedy said he wasn’t happy until he joined the fraternity. Many times during his freshman year he sat alone in his dorm with no one to discuss his gymnastic, personal or school problems with. Kennedy carried this negative attitude around school and into the gym.

"I was negative about everything," Kennedy said about his pre-fraternity days. "I wasn’t enjoying anything. I was always down. It hurt my gymnastics."

"It might sound like I’m pumping this story but the difference (of my attitude towards gymnastics, school and life) was like night and day," the All-American added. "A few days after I joined the fraternity, the coach came up to me and said he could see a change in my attitude. He was pleased. My parents also said they noticed a change in my attitude."

"When I went by the house (during rush) I found out you don’t have to limit yourself to just one thing (school, gymnastics, or partying). I found out there were more things than just sitting in your dorm room," Kennedy, the 1982 Beta-Sigma fall semester rush chairman said. "Everything I saw in the fraternity I wanted."

"I used to be a real terror in the gym," Kennedy continued. "I used to have temper tantrums all the time. But now I’ve learned there are going to be rocky times and you have to get over them."

From here on out, it should be smooth sailing for Beta-Sigma’s All-American gymnast. Unless, he decides to walk to Los Angeles, the site of the 1984 Olympics, on his hands and slips and falls.

CALIFORNIA BERKELEY, UNIVERSITY OF IOTA

So closes another year at the "Big University of California, Berkeley. The past two quarters have seen the Pi's in force; situations ranging from skiing and initiating in the Sierras, canoeing down the American River, clam baking in Santa Cruz and skin diving at Mills. Although construction got off to a slow start, the annual spring luau was a success. Alumni Dave Haneleine and Gordon Johnson are to be thanked for their contributions to this event.

In sports, the "All Pro-No Star" Pi's, captained by Kevie Bear, made it to the I.F.C. soccer finals. The softball team, scheduled into an intensely competitive league, muscled its way to a winning record, but did not make the playoffs. Brian DuBoise claimed the house pool tournament.

We extend congratulations to our ten graduating seniors: Frank Miyahira, Bob Breeden, John Bernstein, Steve Ellman, Martin Van Ardenne, Mark Miller, John Wookie, Eric Nicholson, J. R. Begg and Evan Domingo.

CALIFORNIA STATE
UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON
EPSILON-NU

Epsilon-Nu has continued its success this past semester. We captured the intramural "Team of the Year" championship for the second straight year. One of the events that helped us this semester was the over-the-line softball tournament. Of 25 teams entered, Sigma Pi had five. We placed first, second and third. This event allowed us to establish a new CSUF intramural point total record with 2,008.3 points. Phil Adishian, Larry Rovira, (Intramural Chairman), Dave Michelle, Russ Frieson, Mike Young, Nick Chekimzoff, Clark Paul, Jeff Lux, Darren Schulman and Don Simkins did outstanding jobs on the intramural field.

Our local little sister program enjoyed similar success. Under the direction of "Super-Chairman" Russ Frieson, the little sisters set up and ran their own rush night. Former little sister president Kim Tanaka was named to the Los Angeles Ram cheerleading squad. In other news, Epsilon-Nu was honored at the second annual Cal-State Fullerton Awards Banquet for having the "Best Campus-Community Relations" and "Best Greek Organization". Sigma Pi was nominated in seven categories, while no other fraternity received a single nomination.

Sigma Pi at Cal-State Fullerton has always been fortunate to get good rush participation year after year. We had a very successful group that rushed 18 men this semester.

The talk around the house these days is focused on Convocation. We have a lot of fired up guys who want Epsilon-Nu to be named winners of the Chapter Director's trophy.

CALIFORNIA STATE
UNIVERSITY, LONG BEACH
BETA-OMICRON

We initiated 15 new members during a successful spring semester, boosting active membership to 87. We are the second largest Sigma Pi chapter.

The highlight of the season was our annual Orchid Ball, held in El Centro, California, May 7, 8 and 9. The weekend was very exciting as more than 50 brothers turned out with dates to celebrate the end of yet another school year. O.B. Chairman Terry Farney did a super job organizing the event. Little Sister Kathy Green (Delta-Gamma) was honored as queen.

Equally exciting was the chapter's first trip to Mazatlan, Mexico during spring break. Epsilon-Nu (California State Fullerton) challenged us to out show them up in Mexico. Once again, the men of Beta-Omicron proved that we are the SUPREMES Sigma Pi partners of the West Coast. We — 16 brothers and little sisters and more than 20 of our favorite sorority girls — showed the boys of Epsilon-Nu how it is done!

The Brothers closed out the social year with a Hugh T.G.I.O. (Thank God It's Over) party, attended by more than 300 students. The following night, we enjoyed a luau at Gary Abel's house overlooking Newport Harbor.

Athletically, Beta-Omicron once again ranked among the best. Fred Loya won the Intramural Superstar Championship. Jim O'Connell started for the varsity rugby squad. Lee Curtin placed second in Intramural badminton, and Donny Romano captured the I.F.C. surfing crown. Mike O'Shea and Jim Portner, together with alumnus Jim Hernandez (pledged Fall '72) captured the Irvine City-League Volleyball Championship. Also, our football challenge match with Epsilon-Nu has yet to be accepted.

Planned philanthropy for the upcoming semester include our first sorority softball tournament and a basketball challenge match with the Long Beach Police Department. All proceeds will go to underprivileged children in Long Beach.

UNDERGRADUATES: Dave Myers is Student Body Senator.
ALUMNI: Steve Mueller was voted Alumnus of the Year at Orchid Ball... John Grant Dobbs, 78, announced engagement to Vikki Lynn Hess. The wedding is planned for November, 1982.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, NORTHRIDGE EPSILON-IOTA

What's a fraternity without a strong little sister program? Our new Little Sister Presiden Teri Shapiro, along with Little Sister Chairman Victor Allen, headed a successful fund raising party called "Chipendale's Night" modeled after the famous Los Angeles nightclub which admits ladies only until 10:00 p.m. and has male waiters.

New Executive Council plans began with our first event of the summer — "The World's Greatest Car Wash". Tickets were sold by all the fraternities and sororities with proceeds going to the organization's (who washed the most cars) favorite philanthropy.

UNDERGRADUATES: Congratulations to Dave Barker (Epsilon pledge class) for becoming the third member to be elected Student Body President... Further commendation is also extended to Sage Pat Shapiro, who is completing his second semester as Upper Division Senator... Mark Mayars competed in the annual Boston Marathon 10K Run in April with a time of 3:15... Mike Cerrutti underwent successful shoulder surgery last month under the skillful hand of Dr. Frank Jobe, team doctor for the Los Angeles Dodgers.

ALUMNI: Honorable mention goes to alumni brothers Ron Kraml and Jay Mangel for showing an active interest in our meetings (and maintaining identical beards)... Jeff Greene devoted his time and energy to the establishment of an alumni organization for our young but growing chapter.

EASTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY BETA-GAMMA

Everything at Beta-Gamma is running very well after a successful winter pledge class brought in 10 men and the summer pledge class added an additional three.

Our chapter finished second out of 13 fraternities in the All-Sports Trophy. We did very well in Greek Week. Beta-Gamma won the little-man's tug-of-war and was runner-up in the big-man's tug-of-war. We won the canoe race and the 880 relay. We would have won the overall Greek Week Title, but there is no such championship at EIU. However, Beta-Gamma captured the Sportsmanship Trophy during Greek Week. Other Greek Week finishes include: Marty Nizener winning the triathlon and Tom Dehringer finished second, and we were runners-up in Greek Sing.

Founders Day was most enjoyable and alumni, J. W. Oglesby, was the guest speaker. A special thanks to Alumni Correspondent Jim Owens for his efforts in organizing the affair. The award winners were: Randy Darlach, "Best Pledge G.P.A." and "Best Accumulative G.P.A. for a Senior"; Bert Levinson had the second best accumulative G.P.A.; "The Bootstrap Award" (most improved G.P.A.) from pledgeship went to John Bavetta.

One of the biggest successes of the year was our formal, March 13, at the Marriott Pavilion Hotel in downtown St. Louis. Awards handed out at the formal were: Outstanding Senior, Jeff Delong; Outstanding Junior, Curt Ames; Outstanding Athlete, Dave Nall; and Outstanding Pledge, Rob Nardini. Linda Jeweson was honored as the Sweetheart; she's a Alpha Gamma Delta. Jack Woods won IFC and Greek Man of the Year honors.

EASTERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY EPSILON-LAMDBA

Sigma Pi received a couple of trophies for finishing second in Greek Week. Dwayne White and Doug Pavlovic received recognition for their Greek Week contributions. White designed the Greek Week logo and Pavlovic provided the music at the dance. Joe Ingle was in charge of this year's Battle of the Fraternities. We raised $1,000.00 for home meals delivery in Richmond, dribbling a basketball to Morehead State University (92 miles). Kappa Alpha Theta also helped the Sigma Pi's here at Eastern by co-sponsoring a dunking booth at the city court house. The money collected went to the American Cancer Society.

UNDERGRADUATES: Kirk Randolph is still involved with Army ROTC... Bill Wilson won the fraternity individual high bowling average trophy, as the Sigma Pi's rolled to the fraternity bowling championship... Tim Rankin is a member of the ancient accepted Scottish Rite of Freemasonry.

Beta-Gamma proves their No. 1 by displaying the seven trophies they won during the '82 Greek Games.
The spring semester closed and Epsilon-Epsilon spurred heavily into our summer rush program. The chapter hosted interested students to four regional rush programs in Wichita, Kansas City, Topeka and ending an exciting and recreation filled weekend of activities in Emporia.

Special Congratulations go to Shane Michaels and Todd Rhodes for their decision to join our brotherhood.

Epsilon-Epsilon would like to formally express its appreciation to Chapter Consultant Darrell Edquist; his addition of new ideas and suggestions helped improve our chapter.

The chapter would also like to thank chapter advisor and alumnus Dan Arbor, for his guidance and assistance the past few years. He's been a major asset to our chapter as we've benefited from his quality leadership.

UNDERGRADUATE: Tim Coen is a newscasting personality for KLRF-KVOE radio Emporia. Don Meier and Steve Reichardt competed on the Emporia track program. Scott Holman was promoted to cameraman for IMC-TU. He was recently awarded the I.F.C.'s outstanding pledge scholarship. Brad Clark served as the women's athletic sport announcer.

ALUMNI: Special congratulations go to these alumni for landing their new jobs: Scott Anderson, 82, Payless Cashways; Bob Palmer, 81, Kich Carbon Company; Dave Miller, 82, Mutual of Omaha. Dan Arbor began a new job with a hotel management position in Glacier National Park this summer.

OUR BRIEF: Stangarlin economics award and the Ann Vincent Memorial Business Administration Award for their outstanding efforts. Brothers Barasch and Schermernoon will be attending school in Booferton, England next semester. Brother Foster received the chapter Joe Bryant Award. Congratulations to brother Hensley on his engagement to Stella Caldwell. Brother Fuss will be the head groundskeeper at Indian Springs Golf Course. Brother Christman has volunteered his services as overseer of the Halfway House next door.

ALUMNI: Congratulations to four out of the five Hardy's - Steve, Ray, Gino, and Brian - all have been accepted to law school.

EMPIRE STATE UNIVERSITY

ALPHA-PHI

Our infant softball team managed to make it to the playoffs this year thanks to MVP Frank Rossi, who helped us beat Phi Kappa Psi, 13-6.

Our spring rush was highlighted by our semi-annual Polynesian Party, complete with a man made jungle.

Several Alpha Phi's journeyed to University of Tennessee-Martin last May to help install the Epsilon-Tau Chapter. The ceremony was enjoyed by all as well as the ensuing banquet and Orchid Ball and the Tau's were most hospitable. The experience brought back memories of our rechartering last year. Speaking of which, our Orchid Ball was May 8. Congratulations to those receiving awards at the dance: Brother of the Year Robert Schwartz; Pledge of the Year - Lamar Causey; Sweetheart of the Year - Amy Plankenhorst; Pledge of the Quarter - Eddie Parsons.

The chapter as a whole has done well. We were third out of 26 fraternities in scholarship and we are currently tied for first in efficiency among all the Sigma Pi chapters. During the winter we initiated four new members and this past spring five.

UNDERGRADUATES: Once again the UGA Pi's registered high marks and accolades. Sage-tan Mike Terry, Third Counselor David Hammett, and Herald Robert Schwartz ended the 1981-82 winter quarter with perfect 4.0's. Spring quarter saw David Hammett winning the seventh annual Charles M. Strahan Scholarship for the most outstanding junior mathematics major, as well as being named as one of the IPC's Top Ten Greeks. Also Fourth Counselor Mike Brown received the National Sojourners Award, UGA's most outstanding sophomore R.O.T.C. cadet.

ILLINOIS, UNIVERSITY OF PHI

We wish the best of luck to our recent graduates: Greg Johnson, Steve Koomar, Roger Marshall, Mike Mendelson, Aaron Slovin, Al Swaringin, Kirby Wise, Greg Witt and last but not least, Larry Wolfson.

As far as social events is concerned, the biggest event of the semester was our annual Orchid Ball.

ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY

EPILO-EPPILO

The spring formal was called "Say Goodbye to Hollywood." The brothers and dates dressed as everyone from Lucy and Ricky to the Honeymooners. The Orchid Ball was also a wonderful success thanks to the organizational skills of Ken French. John Porter did a great job planning a new event - Sigma Pi's Mom's Day.

With contributions from our building fund and alumni, we plan to remodel three main rooms on the first floor. Brad McMillan's mother is giving us help as an interior decorator. We raised almost $100.00 at a Little Sister Box Auction. The bidding was intense. The buyers were all pleased with the contents of the mystery boxes.

UNDERGRADUATES: Doug Ghidina and Bob Zantot had excellent seasons in golf and tennis, respectively. In addition, we would like to wish Dennis Favoro the best of luck next semester as he will be studying in Washington D.C.

ALUMNI: Several of our alumni have been accepted into Illinois medical schools: Tim Vega, Rush Medical School; Scott Zeller, Northwestern University Medical School; and Steve Dunlap, Southern Illinois University Medical School.

INDIANA INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

GAMMA-KAPPA

The alumni banquet was a success. Although the turnout was not as great as last year's there were 50 couples present. There was a corn roast at Fred Pash's in August.

UNDERGRADUATE: All brothers helped complete extensive work on the house which included: pumping insulation in the walls, painting the exterior, recarpeting and replumbing the bathroom, and recarpeting the phone booth.

ALUMNI: Thanks goes to Vic Tsoa for his contributions and Bob Kistler and Bob B. for their time and understanding.

LOYOLA MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY

EPILO-EPPILO

Once again California can boast another new chapter of Sigma Pi, the Epsilon-Sigma chapter at Loyola Marymount University in Los Angeles. On April 17, in the Albert Gertsen Pavillion, home of the 1984 Olympic Weightlifting arena, 55 brothers were chartered as founding fathers.

It took a little more than a year of colonization, and countless hours of hard work, but it paid off. The celebration of this great occasion took place that night at the Culver City Ramada Inn. We really looked sharp in our black tuxedos with family, friends, and dates totalling about 500 in attendance. The ceremonies concluded with the National Representatives and the Epsilon-Sigma Chapter joined together in a large circle to sing the fraternity song, with help from brothers of California State Fullerton, Long Beach, and UCLA, five suites celebrated heavily into the morning.

As the newest fraternity on campus we also captured the Greek Week Championship in May, from the perennial owners the Alpha Delta Gamma's. Now the new trophy can be put in our new fraternity house in Playa del Rey. Other events which occurred over the spring semester were: Sigma Pi's sponsoring of four Special Olympic game's athletes, selling Louis Pretzels at the annual Mayfair Celebration, raising $1,000.00 at L.A.X. Airport, sending teams to the California State Fullerton Sigma Pi softball World Series.

During the summer, brothers flew or motorhomed their way to Louisville, Kentucky for the Convocation. The rest of the brothers represented Sigma Pi at Dodger Stadium for a get together in the left field pavilion.

UNDERGRADUATES: Chris Perez was elected to University Council... Ed Panconi is a member of the University Relations staff... Ken Stecker was elected to Jesuit Alumnic Club Vice-President... Dave Fox is IFC Vice-President... Mark Gloudehn is a member of Loyola's ranked men's chorus team... Vince Purgazio lettered in crew.
Meet Epsilon-Sigma, chartered with 55 members on May 1, 1982.

... Damien Pascale. Bob Watson, Gene Keller, John Petrovich and Fox lettered on LMU's seventh straight Conference Championships Rugby Club. Eight brothers were picked as Crimson Circle members.

MOREHEAD STATE UNIVERSITY
DELTA-RHO
We changed our kitchen into a nice party room. We held our Orchid Ball in Lexington, Ky. We still have plenty of favors for anyone who wants a nice glass with a crest on it. We have six new brothers: Jeff West, Jeff Ventura, Jeff Reed, Brett Senders, Ed Park and Andy Justice.

UNDERGRADUATES: Tom Campbell [Mining Technology] and Jerry Price [Music Education] received their degrees last May . . . Ralph Wells and Steve Hegen were at a ROTC Officer's training camp in Fort Riley this summer.

ALUMNI: Delta Rho had three brothers graduate with a Master's Degree last May: John Pottinger, John Frazier and Chris Blakeman . . . Doug Reeves became the manager of Morrison's Cafeteria in Lexington . . . Mark Light, Mike Flesher, Brad Cross and Bryan Montgomery have all decided to take the big step — they've gotten married.

NEW JERSEY INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
ALPHA-MU
Another year has gone by and Alpha-Mu continues to be the No. 1 fraternity on campus. This past spring we dominated IFC by capturing the softball championship. Our softball team was lead by captain Dave "you gotta luv that" Harris in centerfield and pitcher Mike Williams. The team went undefeated and Williams averaged seven strike outs per game.

We raised more money than any other fraternity during N.J.I.T.'s annual phonathon.

UNDERGRADUATES: We were also proud to have Thurman Van Riper on this year's varsity baseball team. He played a major role, starting at first base and occasionally pitching. Van Riper stroked the winning rbi in this year's ECAC Tournament. Van Riper, a freshman, has plans to continue playing for N.J.I.T. in hopes of impressing some pro scouts... Also, N.J.I.T. is anxious for the return of Dave "Face" Janssen to the N.J.I.T. soccer team. Janssen, a junior majoring in mechanical engineering, is one of the team leaders and is regarded as a possible pro prospect.

NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY
BETA-IOTA
We once again dominated Greek Week activities, taking trophies for Greek Games and overall spirit. Plans are underway for homecoming, making it better than Founders Day. We activated six pledges this spring. Best of luck to graduating brothers John Klein, Shane Weiss, and David Gianbottti.

ALUMNI: John Klein is I.F.C. President... Steve Mackey was Motor Supply Company's salesman of the month... Dave Gianbottti conducted his second successful All-Campus Leadership School... John Klein was inducted into the Order of Omega... Shane Weiss and Mike Adams won the Arizona Snow Bowl Ski Classic.

ALUMNI: Dennis Hunt is president of the Northern Arizona Youth Football Association... Jon Butterbaugh is manager of the Sonic in Las Vegas... Mark Aspey, Economic Crime Enforcement Specialist for the U.S. Attorney General for Arizona, has been named to head the Phoenix Offices Fraud Unit... Good Luck to Vincent Rossi and Mike Smith on the Chicago Merchandise Exchange.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY
BETA-SIGMA
We had a very successful spring semester with 19 new initiates. The social calendar kept us very busy with mixers, fundraisers and spring formal at the Hamilton Hotel in Chicago.

We are proud to announce that our house mascots "Lady" and "Buster" are the proud parents of 11 little puppies.

In sports, we took first place in all-campus "Tug-of-War". The pledge softball team won first place among the Greeks. We also took second in co-rec water polo, volleyball, greek sing and basketball. Overall, the chapter finished second in Greek Week.

UNDERGRADUATES: Tom Kennedy made the U.S.A. National Gymnastics Team and is an All-American on the floor exercise... Dan Le Torneau, Rick Hahn, and Paul Gorman were elected Student Senators... Ray Kulling won first place in intramural boxing, lightweight division... Kevin Kupitz won first place in the O.C.R. weightlifiting contest, bench pressing 395 pounds.

ALUMNI: Here is a list of the spring 1982 graduates with major and accomplishments: George Holland (Marketing) recently engaged and employed by Arlington Park Race Track. Patrick Murphy (IN&T), traveling with the New Zealand Rugby Team. Alan Shapiro (Marketing), Stuart Rosenberg (Computer Science) and Dean Manhoff (Computer Science) were hired by the Feffer Bagel Co. Mike Tepper (Finance), was accepted to DePaul Law School. Tom Tezak (Marketing), selling used cars. Dan Butler (Advertising), hired by The Deltaman Co. Tom Parkin (Advertising), working for The Tracy Fich Co. Alan Rubin (Num-Ctrll) (Central Ohio Science Institute), went to grad school. Mark Luedecker (Advertising), was hired by Stacks Ad Agency. Mike Pritchett (Finance), hired by Worth Inc. as an internal auditor. Ralph John (Advertising), trying out with the Chicago Bears. Todd Edwards (Computer Science), bartender. Joe Schmidt (Finance). Jeff Knoll (IN&T), Mercedes Benz salesman. Bob Beairston (Economics), runs a dancersize studio in Chicago. Mark Shearer (Marketing), hired as a bricklayer with Miche Construction.

OHIO NORTHERN UNIVERSITY
ZETA

Our spring quarter was dampened by the fact we had no seniors. However, expectations and spirits are raised for the upcoming year. A 48-hour soccer marathon was held to raise money for Multiple Sclerosis. Thirty six people, including several alumni, attended our annual spring campout and canoe trip at Mohican State Park.

Improvements on the house included: painting the stairwells and foyer, landscaping the lawn during the summer, and the remaining interior will be painted in the fall.

UNDERGRADUATES: Scott Zyski and Ward Wildman were inducted into Delta Mu Delta and Omicron Delta Kappa honor societies. Zyski was awarded outstanding Junior Business Major with a 3.98 GPA. Frank Davbitz lettered in tennis as a freshman. Charlie Mack is a member of the Student Senate.

OREGON STATE UNIVERSITY
OMEGA

Most improved fraternity pledge class grades from fall to winter term on campus.

ALUMNI: Gary A. Ratcliffe, 63, is the Cheane Construction Company President. C. Frederick Ehler, 70, is a Houston Live-stock and Rodeo Association Committee member. Michael J. Wilson, 73, a Boise Cascade Corporation employee serving as relations coordinator. Stewart Samuels, '75, works at Data Corporation as a Systems Analyst. Patrick Frazier, 80, is employed by the National Marine Fisheries Service as a foreign fishery observer.

Ohio State enjoys Founder's Day.
RHODE ISLAND, UNIVERSITY OF ALPHA-UPSILON

Construction on our house started, the beautiful structure should be ready during the fall semester. Get psyched guys—we are there.

UNDERGRADUATES: Mike Brainerd graduated ROTC with honors and received his commission. Jeff Willinger became Student Body Treasurer and manager of the Student Rathskellar Organ. Jim Hardman was accepted on to the K.S.S. Board of Directors.

Mark Brockwell, Bob White, Sam Braen, Brant Day, Jerry "Rock" Paveareu, Bill Chenel, and Randy Rocha expect to see a lot of playing time on the varsity football team. Jack "Keg" McKinnon and Steve "Punk" Peterson did very well on the crew team. Peterson rowed to a national victory in freshman eight.

SAN DIEGO STATE UNIVERSITY
ALPHA-Omega

Congratulations to our nine new actives! We lifted a load from our collective shoulders when we paid off a large portion of our mortgage. The house is attracting more brothers into it as the requests for rooms are on the rise.

The semester was capped off with the Orchid Ball, held at The Catamaran Hotel. Our own musically inclined bro's provided the danceable tunes.

The brothers of Alpha Omega would like to congratulate the fine men of the University of San Diego and their colonization.

UNDERGRADUATES: Sage Jim Corridan was named Aztec Center Board Chairman for the Associated Students. John Catona finished second in the IPC scholarship contest and is $100.00 richer. Tony Black was named Administrative Assistant for academic affairs, the liaison between the Associated Students and the Student Senate.

Dan Chambers was voted Outstanding Active for the spring semester.

ALUMNI: Mike Kraft, 81, is taking the big plunge and marrying former little sister Laura Whitby. "Iron Man" Mike was twice voted outstanding active and pledge trainer and a house resident for longer than he cares to admit. Our congratulations for him; our loss will certainly be Laura's gain.

Dave Ruyce, 80, was voted Outstanding Alumnus at Founder's Day.

SHIPPENSBURG STATE UNIVERSITY
BETA-UPSILON

Beta-Upsilon had its most successful Spring Fling ever this semester. In addition to being our biggest fund-raiser, it gave us a chance to meet our neighboring chapters. We would like to thank the brothers of Temple University, Drexel University, Millersville Colony as well as all our alumni who helped us run and clean-up the event.

UNDERGRADUATES: Congratulations to Stephen Wildemann, winner of this year's David See Award, brother of the year. Also graduating are Blaise Conwell and David Rusenko, who did a fantastic job on organizing the 10th annual Spring Fling.

SOUTHWEST MISSOURI STATE UNIVERSITY
ALPHA-RHO

Alpha Rho participated in charitable activities such as the Wilson Creek 10,000 meter run for the American Heart Association, which we placed second in the fraternity fund raising competition.

The intramural season highlighted our success. In waterpolo, we won the All-Greek Championship, lead by Ron "Backhand" Maring and Brian Shelp. In flag football we tackled first place with the help of standouts, Bill Stephenson, Chris Cressler, Kenny Poteet, Mike Nevels and Sheldon Freegard.

Indoor-soccer was a first-time sport for Alpha-Rho. As a darkhorse, we captured the All-Greek Crown and finished with a 7-0 record. Our success can be attributed to Jeff Fuchs, Steve Peurung, and Scott Spackler.

We end by congratulating Drury College (Epsilon-Rho) on its April chartering.

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY
KAPPA

On November 14, 1982, Kappa will be sponsoring a Fall Ball. University faculty, administration, alumni, and students will be in attendance, as well as Temple University President Peter Liacouras and past president Marvin Wachman.

We invite any interested alumni to contact us for further information.

U.C.L.A. Upsilon

Upsilon's spring success began with a second place finish in Greek Week, out of 27 fraternities. Upsilon made school headlines by hosting a California Lieutenant Governor candidate in a cocktail-political speaking affair this year.

U.C.L.A.'s annual Mardi Gras was also a success. Not only did Upsilon have one of the better booths, but we also destroyed ZBT in our annual trumpeter competition.

It was a great year for intramurals as Sigma Pi finished eighth. This included a co-ed football championship and a bowling title. Our soccer team made it to the semi-finals, and the rugby squad to the quarter-finals.

The chapter was featured in a United Artist movie "Tag", starring Robert Carradine. Part of the movie was filmed last spring at the house and gave several minutes of footage to the bro's during a party scene. Congratulations to Dieter Letsch for bringing back our little sister program.

The spring pledge class put in 30 hours of community service to the local Tay-Sacs disease prevention office. The bro's celebrated Orchid Ball at the fabulous Marriot Hotel in Newport Beach. We'd like to thank Alpha-Omega (San Diego State) for housing our casualties after the Mexico trip.

Upsilon, the oldest U.C.L.A. fraternity house, is currently undergoing repairs in the pledge dorms and the kitchen.

UNDERGRADUATES: Former Sage Ian Moxon graduated as a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Moxon will be attending Stanford University this fall as a graduate student. Bill Korb, 82, graduated on the dean's honor list and will be accepting a job with McDonald Douglas. Scott Tsiguta was named the 1982-83 U.C.L.A. Greek Week Chairman.

Matthew Wheeden was recently voted Inter-Fraternity Council Justice for the 1982-83 academic year. Greg Harlan was one of 25 students nationally to be chosen for the U.C. Berkeley graduate school Public Policy Institute Summer School. Harlan will also be working in the administration of the newly elected U.C.L.A. undergraduate president, after working several months as an influential member of the campaign staff.

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY
ALPHA-NU

We initiated 17 fine men into Alpha-Nu this spring. Their looting (er, uh . . . pledge trip) of University of Virginia was one of their pledge ship highlights.

Our annual toga party was a big hit on campus and speaking of big hits thanks to Dave ‘crash and burn’ Dollar for a smashing good time at one of our spring bashes.

Our fraternity placed third in Greek Week due to a superior brotherhood effort. This included third in Greek song, second in tug-of-war (heavyweight), third in cross country and third in the chariot race. Our highest finish in anyone’s memory.

Our ultimate frisbee team made it to the finals of the Wake Forest Tournament before losing a close battle. Our soccer team made it to the playoffs. Our softball teams also concluded successful seasons.

Our GPA remains above the all men’s and fraternity averages.

After pledge night the brothers enjoyed a cookout at Hanging Rock Park. The pledge project was installing new speakers on our dance floor, which are performing past anyone’s expectations.

Our house was being furnished with new carpet this summer thanks to the support of our alumni club.

UNDERGRADUATES: Jeff Gjerde is sports editor for the Old Gold and Black, the campus newspaper. Scott Fitzgerald is also doing outstanding work for the paper. Charles Michaels will be studying overseas in Italy during the fall semester.

Roger Tust, Patrick Naud, and Brian Fazid were selected to the Alpha Sigma Delta Honor Society for pre-med.

WAYNE STATE UNIVERSITY
GAMMA-OMEGA

Gamma-Omega welcomes Eric Kessler, Mike Francis, Ron Norak, and Steve Johnson as our spring initiates. Welcome to the brotherhood!

We had tremendous success at Greek Week this year, winning the chariot race in a come-from-behind thriller, and the talent show. As a matter of fact, our skit was the only one to receive a standing ovation. However our second place finishes in the tug-of-war and beer chug were the reasons we finished second, losing the championship by one point.

The ‘Not going to Florida Party’ received such rave reviews as our best party ever.

Under the direction of brother McNally, a recreation room was constructed by Kurt and Mark Lauer, Bob Maciejewski, Tony Roney, and Greg Remus. Nice work guys.

The highlights of the spring was our annual Orchid Ball, held at a Holiday Inn in Windsor, Canada.

UNDERGRADUATES: Maciejewski was commissioned as a Second Lieutenant in the U.S. Army Reserves.

Worcester Polytechnic Institute
GAMMA-IOTA

The first half of 1982 was good. In the annual chariot competition we won “best design” and “best overall”. Our softball team was 5-0 during the snow-shortened season.

We held our eighth annual Bike Race May 8, which was as successful as ever. That same day we held our annual alumni picnic, featuring “Lost in the Shuffle”, an excellent bluegrass band from Boston.

One week earlier we had the pleasure of helping in the initiation of Alpha-Upsilon chapter at the University of Rhode Island. We wish them the best of luck and hope to party with them soon.

UNDERGRADUATES: Chris Erikson was elected president of CE Honor Society and selected to Tau Beta Pi, a National Engineering Honor Society. Jeff Moore was also honored by Tau Beta Pi. Jim Nestruck was selected to Pi Tau Sigma, a ME Honor Society. Mark Scott won a $2,500.00 scholarship.

ALUMNI: Dick Rotelli, 80, married August, 1981 and works for JAR Association in Providence, Rhode Island. Stu Barer, 80, promoted from the zipper factory and is now working as a forklift driver in the medical supply house.

Chapter Notes

AUBURN UNIVERSITY (Alpha-Delta)

We placed second out of 31 fraternities in Greek Week.

CALIFORNIA STATE UNIVERSITY, FULLERTON (Epsilon-Nu)

We won the Southern California Sigma Pi softball World Series for the second consecutive year.

CENTRAL MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY (Delta-Alpha)

We won the spirit trophy, the most coveted award in the Greek System.

ELON COLLEGE (Epsilon-Theta)

We won Greek Week, and are in the lead for the intramural cup. We had our spring banquet at Myrtle Beach.

LOYOLA MARYMOUNT UNIVERSITY (Epsilon-Sigma)

We won the Greek intramural championship.

MURRAY STATE UNIVERSITY (Gamma-Iota)

We took third place in Paul Bunyon Day competition and participated in the Kentucky Special Olympics.

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, BERKELEY (Iota)

Second place in the I.F.C. soccer tournament.

UNIVERSITY OF IOWA (Xi)

First semester grade reports ranked us third among the 18 campus fraternities.

UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI, ROLLA (Alpha-Iota)

The chapter won second place in the annual Greek Week games.

WESTERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY (Epsilon-Zeta)

We donated $100.00 to the Western Illinois University library.

Grizzard Gains Fame
He's Honored by Time Magazine, Fraternity

Lewis Grizzard, '68, University of Georgia (Alpha-Phi) is fast being recognized as one of the finest writers in the Southern United States.

Grizzard, 35, writes a nationally syndicated column for The Atlanta Constitution and was named by Time Magazine as "one of the nation's rising young newspaper humorists."

He's written three best sellers since 1979. They are: "Kathy Loudermilk, I Love You" (the fastest selling book in Atlanta's history), "Won't You Come Home Billy Bailey" and "Don't Sit Under The Grits Tree With Anyone But Me". All three are on display at the National Headquarters Executive Office in Vincennes, Indiana. Grizzard also co-authored the book Glory! Glory!, about the University of Georgia's rise to the 1980 National Collegiate Football Championship.

Grizzard's resume is impressive:
- Athens Daily News Sports Editor
- Executive Sports Editor of The Journal
- Sports Illustrated Correspondent
- Special Editor of The Atlanta Constitution
- Sports Editor of The Chicago Sun-Times
- Sports Columnist of The Atlanta Constitution
- News Page Columnist of The Atlanta Constitution

For his achievements outside the fraternity and involvement with the Atlanta Alumni Club, Grizzard was honored as a recipient of the 1982 Founders' Award at the 36th Biennial Convocation last August in Louisville, Kentucky. This award is the highest and most prestigious honor an alumnus can receive from the National Fraternity.

As a student Grizzard brought national recognition to the chapter and himself. In 1967, he received a Minneapolis Star Tribune scholarship, honoring him as the outstanding junior journalism student at the University of Georgia. He also won a William Randolph Hearst writing award.

If you're wondering why Grizzard was honored by Time Magazine, here are some excerpts from his books:

Grizzard was asked, Who are the most difficult people to interview?... "Those who names recently appear in the obituary column, anybody in Harrison's on Friday night with a wedding ring in his pocket, and Korean soccer players."

Grizzard is a train buff, logging more than 50,000 miles. He's not shy of flying, but it's the crashing and burning that concerns him... "Ever notice the first thing you see at an airport? It's a big sign that says 'Terminal'."

"'I've tried to overcome my difficulties with flying. I decided drinking before boarding would be the answer. I'd schedule a flight and then went to the airport bar. A day before the flight."

"'When I fly I like for the pilot to have gray hair and a gorgeous girl awaiting his arrival at our destination. In other words, something to live for."

Shadowwood Seeks Books by Brothers

If you've written a book, the Executive Office would like a copy for the Shadowwood Library; your publication deserves to be in the library. Please autograph a copy and send it to the National Headquarters, P.O. Box 1897, Vincennes, Indiana 47591.

The Emerald will always include a photograph and information about the author and his publication.

William A. Seibert, '27, UCLA (Upsilon), died in October, 1981.
He spent 35 years with Crowell Weeden Co. At UCLA, he worked with the UCLA Daily Bruin Advertising Department.
Dr. Max Rafferty, '83, UCLA (Upsilon), died June 13 when the car he was driving accidently slid off the side of the road into a small pond, about 10 miles outside Troy, Alabama. Rescuers freed Rafferty from his half submerged vehicle and began resuscitation. Rafferty, 65, was pronounced dead from drowning at Edge Memorial Hospital.

Rafferty was the Dean of Education at Troy State University in Alabama since 1971.

He gained national recognition from 1940-71 as a California teacher and administrator, preaching the "back to basics" and "the three R's" educational theories. The former Upsilon Sage authored a nationally syndicated column for The Los Angeles Times and commentated a nationally syndicated radio program, "Education Today".

Rafferty constantly complained that American education was going downhill. He blamed education official's policies that placed too much emphasis on tolerating one's peers and social issues. His ideas were ridiculed by many, until the 1960's, when test scores proved students were not very educated in the basics.

Conservative Columnist William F. Buckley Jr. was quoted in one newspaper saying this about Rafferty, "His fidelity to the integrity of the educational system is a national landmark."

In 1968, Rafferty lost an election to enter national politics when he was defeated by California Democrat Alan Cranston for the U.S. Senate.

Before Rafferty's death, Reagan appointed him to a national advisory board on the financing of elementary and secondary education. His duties included advising the President, Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, and Congress in the development of federal policies to improve the efficiency of raising and distributing revenues to elementary and secondary education.

Rafferty was awarded the Sigma Pi Founders' Award, the highest honor bestowed upon an alumnus by the National Fraternity, at the 1972 Convocation in French Lick, Indiana.

Rafferty is survived by his wife Frances, and three children, Kathleen, Dennis and Eileen.

June 16, 1982

Dear Dennis, Eileen and Kathleen:

Nancy and I send our heartfelt condolences on your father's tragic and untimely death. While words are inadequate in the face of the loss you have suffered, please accept our prayers for your peace and strength at this sorrowful time.

Max served with indomitable spirit and loyalty. I am grateful that he was on my team in Sacramento and in Washington. Your father's contributions to the field of education are renowned—they are felt even today as many educators begin to rethink our Nation's traditions in the academic training of students. You can take the greatest pride in your father's memory.

God bless and hold you today and always. With our deepest sympathy.

Sincerely,

Ronald Reagan
Dear Editor:

Nice job with the Spring '82 Emerald. I am with your “Let’s improve our image,” “Shadowwood and The Emerald” in my day were Mr. and Mrs. Sigma Pi.

To be sure money was tight 20 years ago as it is now. We had a magazine and I would like to see more emphasis and dollars placed into The Emerald and Shadowwood.

Keep up the good work,
Former Executive Secretary
James L. Hill.

Dear Editor:

Congratulations on the effort and fine work on the new format you have given to the “Emerald”. I believe you have achieved success and made the “Emerald” into a superior publication. Please find enclosed a check to help in some small way.

Fraternally,
Tom Sommerfield
Gamma-Kappa 1977

Dear Editor:

This past week I received my copy of the Emerald, and I had to tell you it looks excellent. It is the only format that the quarterly publication of Sigma Pi deserves. I especially enjoyed the production techniques and lay-out within the winter edition. I only wished I had had the opportunity to work with this format.

The article on Brother Cresse, sets a good precedence for future alumni features. I can sympathize with you when it comes to tracking down a deserving alumnus, then drafting a meaningful article. But then again, the purpose of the Emerald, is for the alumni, not for the undergraduate chapters to use as a sounding board.

I strongly feel with a new format it is time to add more alumni news. I always thought with a new format would come the revamping of the chapter news letters. You may already be considering it. It would be so nice to have one yearly article from each chapter and colony (much in the way Fullerton designed their article “Children for One Day”). Design a type of lottery that will give every chapter and colony the opportunity to prepare a cleaner more professional overview of the groups activities. A lottery system with one yearly article will place more emphasis on the chapter and give more space for the badly needed alumni and informational articles.

You have done a fine job with the resources available to you. If I can ever be of any assistance, please do not hesitate to call. I miss the time spent with the old Emerald. But I hope you never have to work with the old format.

I wish you continued success and I cannot wait to see the next edition!

Fraternally yours,
Former Emerald Editor
Jeff Knezovich

Dear Editor:

I enjoyed the winter 1982 edition of The Emerald. I like the magazine format better than the tabloid format because the former looks more professional. I hope the change is permanent. I am,

Fraternally,
Monte Burroughs
Brother, Rho Chapter

There were 37 responses to the Sigma Pi Emerald questionnaire and all but one was behind the Emerald improvement plan. Of these, 25 donated and became volunteer Emerald subscribers. Please help the Executive Office put out a better publication.

Donations will go directly to the volunteer Emerald Subscription fund and all volunteers’ names will be printed in future editions.

Two Forms of Insurance

College

Higher education is one way of saying, “I care about my future.”
It’s true investment of four or more years of your life and one of the two best forms of insurance you can have.

Life Insurance

Life insurance is also, in a more literal sense, one of the best forms of insurance you could have.
It’s a great way to cover yourself and protect your investment in the future.
Sigma Pi realizes this.
That’s why we offer up to $50,000 of economical, pure term life insurance. THIS OFFER IS ONLY AVAILABLE TO SIGMA PI’s. We believe it’s an excellent value, and our plan is underwritten by Valley Forge Life Insurance Company, one of the nation’s finest with an A+ (Excellent) rating (as assigned by the insurance industry’s analyst A.M. Best).

*Mail to EMERALD Editor Darrell Edquist, Sigma Pi Fraternity, P.O. Box 1897, Vincennes, Indiana 47591.

To parents: Your son's Sigma Pi magazine is sent to his home address while he's in college and we hope you enjoy reading it. If he is no longer in college and not living at home, please forward his permanent address to: Sigma Pi Fraternity, P. O. Box 1897, Vincennes, Indiana 47591.

Brothers: If you know someone who isn't getting his Emerald, please have him forward his address to the Executive Office immediately.

In the process of moving: Forward the Executive Office your new address so we can have accurate mailing addresses to mail The Emerald.
